

RESOLUTION 2012-30

A RESOLUTION OF RADNOR TOWNSHIP, DELAWARE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, AUTHORIZING THE TOWNSHIP TO EXPEND FUNDS FOR BOND COUNSEL SERVICES ASSOCIATED WITH THE CURRENT REFUNDING OF THE GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS, SERIES 2007

WHEREAS, the Radnor Township administrative staff solicited proposals from interested legal firms in 2010; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners appointed Cozen O'Conner as Bond Counsel for Radnor Township with the adoption of Resolution 2010-42; and

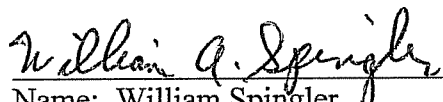

WHEREAS, Resolution 2010-42 recognized that the Township will continue to have on-going responsibilities associated with the various debt obligations that are currently outstanding or will be issued in the future and will need to insure that it has proper legal representation to prepare, assist and review all documents relative to those obligations; and

WHEREAS, the Township is considering its call option relative to the 2007 Series General Obligation Bonds for a possible current refunding and needs to insure that it has necessary legal representation to prepare and review all documents relative to the refinancing proceedings.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby RESOLVED by the Radnor Township Board of Commissioners authorize the Administration to utilize the services of Cozen O'Conner, pursuant to Resolution 2010-42, for the current refunding of the 2007 Series General Obligation Bonds at a price not to exceed $19,750.

SO RESOLVED, this 27th day of February, A.D., 2012
