I. Health officers report posted to website.

DiBruno Brothers is opening soon near the Farmers Market. State has issued new restaurant guidelines effective April 4th. Inside capacity increase to 75%, bar seating will be allowed. Alcohol can be served without an accompanying food order. Restaurants must self certify with the state they are following all Covid guidelines.

Red Cross will hold blood drives, appointments can be booked on website.

Marie is requesting a review of the township Animal ordinances.

II. Covid-19 information.

New cases at Villanova have decreased, Radnor Township cases are holding steady. The Penn Medicine Radnor vaccination sites are distributing 50 % vaccinations to their patients and 50% to county residents.

Board expressed concerns with the restaurant capacity increase and Covid-19 variants on the rise.

III. Student Interns, Trisha and Soomin updated the BOH on the status of their project. Survey is in progress. Students will have follow up when they return to school onsite.

IV. Discussed upcoming formation of Delaware County Health Department. No new updates or actions required at this time.

V. New Business:

- a. Jane gave an update on the activities of the Citizen Corps of Delaware County. Volunteer program of medical and non medical individuals who are currently assisting at the county vaccination sites. County residents can sign up on the website.
