

Flashlight Egg Hunt

Friday, April 1, 2022

(Rain date: April 2, 2022)

Starting at 8:00 PM

The Radnor Trail - Wayne Art Center Entrance
(413 Maplewood Avenue, Wayne)

Teens are invited to participate in our flashlight egg hunt along a portion of The Radnor Trail!* Event hub and parking will take place in the Wayne Art Center parking lot. While on the trail be on the lookout for our prize eggs!

You may have the opportunity to win special prizes. This event is for children in 6th grade and up. Pre-registration is required for this Free Event!

*Event will take place in the dark. Terrain along The Radnor Trail may be unsteady/uneven and may be muddy. Proper shoes and attire strongly recommended.

Online registration opens on Tuesday, February 1, 2022.

Please visit www.radnorrecreation.com to register.

A few of the gift card prizes
inside of our prize eggs!

COVID-19 Health and Safety Protocols will be followed.

- Do not attend if you are feeling symptomatic or if you or someone in your household has had an exposure to COVID-19 or has COVID-19
- Face masks are currently strongly recommended.
- We will practice safe social distancing of 6' or more as possible.
- Please bring your own hand sanitizer

In the event of unforeseen situations such as those imposed by inclement weather or health and safety issues, cancellations may occur. Cancellations and postponements will be communicated on our Department's Instagram and Facebook pages.

Radnor Township
Parks & Recreation Department