Most of the time he drives a white sedan, possibly a Dodge and is in the company of several other black males. Management believes the additional black males fit the descriptions of actors who are responsible for additional retail thefts at their store in Devon, PA.

The Radnor Police respects citizens' privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties by emphasizing behavior, rather than appearance, in identifying suspicious activity. Factors such as race, ethnicity, and/or religious affiliation are not suspicious. The public should only report suspicious behavior and situations (e.g., an unattended backpack or package, or someone breaking into a vehicle or restricted area). Moreover, any physical descriptions are based on victim and witness statements provided to the Radnor Police at the time the incident was reported or developed through investigation.

THANK YOU LETTERS

Hi Brady,

What a great experience I had today! Thank you so much for arranging a ride along with Officer Karmilowicz.

I learned a lot. I was so impressed with her ability to be in clear control of each situation while also having such a friendly and caring demeanor. I would have to believe that each person she stopped must have had a very positive experience as well.

Officer Karmilowicz also took the time to explain to me everything she did and why she did it and allowed me to ask tons of questions. She is a special person and I'm very grateful she is on Radnor PD.

Thank you again! Jenny

Chief Flanagan,

I have to express to you how impressed I am with the Citizens Police Academy and the amount of time and effort you and your department put into it. I had so much fun at class last night and am so impressed with the role playing because it gives us a tangible experience regarding the types of scenarios that are commonplace for you. Please express my gratitude to your officers who are making this such a worthwhile and memorable experience. We are having such an eye opening introduction to life as a Radnor Police Officer, and it makes me grateful to live here.

Thank you so much, Chief Flanagan.

Dear Superintendent Flanagan,

On Monday February 20, 2023 at 1531 the Easttown Township Police Department Officers responded to a missing juvenile report at Walnut Ave. The missing juvenile was 13 years of age, special needs and was only wearing a diaper and sweatshirt.

Officer Jennifer Cocco of Radnor PD was enroute to respond to the scene to assist us. Just prior to the arrival of Officer Cocco the juvenile was located in a vehicle. I wanted to recognize Officer Cocco for her willingness to help our police department during this incident.

Again, please extend my thanks to Officer Cocco. I am grateful for the assistance that was rendered to my officers and for the spirit of cooperation that exists between the law enforcement agencies in Chester and Delaware County. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

David Obzud
Chief of Police
